To: Mayor and Council
From: Ron Reymer, Chief Administrative Officer/Clerk
Subject: Development Charges Update
Date: January 31st, 2020

BACKGROUND:

The Township of Lucan Biddulph is required to update our Development Charges by-law every 5yrs as per current legislation.

Please find attached a draft by-law prepared by our consultant, BM Ross. This draft by-law, along with an official notice, is scheduled to be posted on the Township's website in order to comply with the legislative requirements.

Please also note that there is a formal "Public Meeting" in regards to the proposed new Development Charge amounts scheduled for the Council meeting, February 18th, 2020.

ISSUES:

The amount being proposed is not dramatically different from the current amount so I do not expect any significant opposition to the proposed by-law.

IMPACTS TO BUDGET:

N/A.

RECOMMENDATION:

This report is for information purposes.

Part II - Application

2. This By-law applies to all lands in the geographic area of the Corporation. Different charges shall apply to development of land within the Lucan Urban Area, the Granton Urban Area, and the remainder of the municipality.
3. This By-law does not apply to land that is owned by and used for the purposes of;
  - a. A board of education;
  - b. The Corporation or any local board thereof; and
  - c. The Corporation of the County of Middlesex or any local board thereof.
4. No development charge under section 5 is payable where the development;
  - a. Is an enlargement of an existing dwelling unit;
  - b. Is the creation of additional dwelling units as prescribed in O. Reg 82/98, subject to the prescribed restrictions, in the prescribed classes of existing residential buildings or prescribed structures ancillary to existing residential buildings;
  - c. Is a place of worship and land used in connection therewith and every churchyard, cemetery, burying ground or burial site that is exempt from taxation under section 3 of the Assessment Act;
  - d. Is the enlargement of an existing industrial building if the gross floor area is enlarged by fifty percent or less;
  - e. Is non-residential in nature;
  - f. Is a bona fide non-residential farm building; and
  - h. Is a redevelopment where a residential unit or units existed on a property prior to a period of not more than five years prior to an application for a building permit(s) for new residential dwellings on the same property. The new units are not subject to a development charge up to and including the original number of units that existed on the site within five years prior to the application for building permit(s) on the property. All units in excess of the original number are subject to the current development charge.

5. Subject to section 6, Development Charges shall be imposed upon and shall be applied, calculated and collected in accordance with the provisions of this By-law on all land to be developed for residential uses, where
  - a. The development of the land will increase the need for services; and
  - b. The development requires any one of;
    1. The passing of a zoning by-law or of an amendment thereto under Section 34 of the Planning Act;
    2. The approval of a minor variance under Section 45 of the Planning Act;
    3. A conveyance of land to which a by-law passed under Subsection 50(7) of the Planning Act applies;
    4. The approval of a plan of subdivision under Section 51 of the Planning Act;
    5. A consent under Section 53 of the Planning Act;
    6. The approval of a description under Section 50 of the Condominium Act; or
    7. The issuing of a permit under the Building Code Act, 1992 in relation to a building or structure.
6. Section 5 shall not apply in respect of,
  - a. Those services, relating to a plan of subdivision or within the area to which the plan relates, to be installed or paid for by the owner as a condition of approval under Section 51 of the Planning Act; and
  - b. those services to be installed or paid for by the owner as a condition of approval under Section 53 of the Planning Act.
7. Development charges shall not be imposed to pay for increased capital costs required because of increased needs for any of the following:
  - a. the provision of cultural or entertainment facilities, including museums, theatres and art galleries but not including public libraries;
  - b. the provision of tourism facilities including convention centres;
  - c. the acquisition of land for parks;

- d. the provision of a hospital as defined in the Public Hospitals Act;
  - e. the provision of landfill sites and services;
  - f. the provision of facilities and services for the incineration of waste; or
  - g. the provision of headquarters for the general administration of municipalities and local boards.
8. In no event shall a shortfall caused by the exclusion of development charges listed in Section 4 be made up for by increasing the development charge for other development.

PART III - RATES AND CALCULATIONS

9. Development charges against land within the Corporation which is to be developed shall be based upon the following designated services provided by the Corporation:
- a. sanitary sewage service, including sewage treatment facilities, trunk sanitary sewers, pumping stations, and studies related to the provision of these services;
  - b. water service, including water supply, watermains and studies related to the provisions of these services;
  - c. stormwater management facilities;
  - d. roads, sidewalks, and public works facilities;
  - e. fire protection, including fire station space;
  - h. parkland development;
  - i. library services; and
  - g. administration including the costs associated with completing a development charges study.
10. Subject to the provisions of this Part and this By-law, development charges imposed upon land within the Corporation which is to be developed shall be calculated and collected as set out in Schedule "A" to this By-law.

11. Development charges imposed pursuant to this By-law may be adjusted annually, without amendment to this By-law, commencing on January 1, 2021 in accordance with the prescribed index.

PART IV - COMPLAINTS

12. An owner may complain in writing to the Council in respect of the development charge imposed by the Corporation that,
  - a. the amount of the development charge was incorrectly determined;
  - b. whether a credit is available to be used against the development charge, or the amount of the credit or the service with respect to which the credit was given, was incorrectly determined; and
  - c. there was an error in the application of this By-law.
13. A complaint may not be made under section 12 later than 90 days after the date the development charge, or any part of it, is payable.
14. The complaint must be in writing, must state the complainant's name, the address where notices can be given to the complainant and the reasons for the complaint.
15. The Council shall hold a hearing into the complaint and shall give the complainant an opportunity to make representation at the hearing.
16. The Clerk of the Corporation shall mail a notice of the hearing to the complainant at least fourteen (14) days before the hearing.
17. Council may:
  - a. dismiss the complaint; or
  - b. rectify any incorrect determination or error that was the subject of the complaint.
18. The Clerk of the Corporation shall mail to the complainant a notice of the Council's decision and of the last day for appealing the decision, which shall be the day that is forty (40) days after the day the decision is made. The notice required under this section must be mailed not later than twenty (20) days after the day the Council's decision is made.

PART V - FRONT ENDING AGREEMENT

19. The services which may be the subject of a front-ending agreement must be services to which the work relates and to which this By-law relates and are set out below,
  - a. sanitary sewage service, including sewage treatment facilities, trunk sanitary sewers and pumping stations;
  - b. water service, including water supply and watermains;
  - c. storm water drainage and control services; and
  - d. roads, bridges and sidewalks.
20. A front-ending agreement may provide for the following to be included in the cost of the work;
  - a. the reasonable costs of administering the agreement; and
  - b. the reasonable costs of consultants and studies required to prepare the agreement.
21. A front-ending agreement must contain the following:
  - a. a description of the work to be done, a definition of the area of the municipality that will benefit from the work and the estimated cost of the work;
  - b. the proportion of the cost of the work that will be borne by each party to the agreement;
  - c. the method for determining the part of the costs of the work that will be reimbursed by the persons who, in the future, develop land within the area defined in the agreement;
  - d. the amount, or a method for determining the amount, of the non-reimbursable share of the costs of the work for the parties and for persons who reimburse parts of the costs of the work; and
  - e. a description of the way in which amounts collected from persons to reimburse the costs of the work will be allocated.
22. A front-ending agreement may contain other provisions in addition to those required under section 21.

23. A front-ending agreement may provide for a person who is not a party to the agreement to pay an amount only if the person develops land and a development charge could be imposed for the development under Section 5.
24. Sections 4 (f) and 11 apply with modifications to amounts a person who is not a party to a front-ending agreement must pay under the agreement.
25. A front-ending agreement may provide for persons who reimburse part of the costs of the work borne by the parties to be themselves reimbursed by persons who later develop land within the area defined in the agreement.
26. A front-ending agreement must not provide for a person to be reimbursed for any part of their non-reimbursable share of the costs of the work as determined under the agreement.
27. A front-ending agreement comes into force on the day the agreement is made.
28. A front-ending agreement that is terminated by the LPAT shall be deemed to have never come into force.
29. A person who develops land within the area defined in a front-ending agreement shall pay any amount to the Corporation that the agreement provides upon a building permit being issued for the development unless the front-ending agreement provides for the amount to be payable on a later day or on an earlier day.
30. A front-ending agreement may provide that an amount payable for development that requires approval of a plan of subdivision under section 51 of the Planning Act or a consent under Section 53 of the Planning Act and for which a subdivision agreement or consent agreement is entered into, be payable immediately upon the parties entering into the subdivision or consent agreement.
31. The Corporation shall place money received under a front-ending agreement into a special account, which shall be used, in accordance with the agreement, only to pay for work provided for under the agreement and to reimburse those who, under the agreement, have a right to be reimbursed.
32. Notwithstanding Section 31, if the Corporation receives money from parties to the agreement to pay for work provided under the agreement, the Corporation shall, if the agreement so provides return to the parties any amounts that are not needed to pay for the work.
33. If an objection to a front-ending agreement is made, the Corporation shall retain any money received from persons who are not parties to the agreement until all the objections to the agreement are disposed of by the LPAT. If the LPAT makes an order that the agreement be terminated unless amend it in accordance with the LPAT's order the Corporation shall retain the money until the agreement is either terminated or amended.

34. A person is entitled to be given a credit towards a development charge for the amount of their non-reimbursable share of costs of work under a front-ending agreement.
35. If the work would result in a level of service that exceeds the average level of the service in the ten (10) year period immediately preceding the preparation of the background study for this by-law, the amount of the credit must be reduced in the same proportion that the costs of the work that relate to a level of service that exceeds that average level of service bear to the costs of the work.
36. Credits under Section 34 shall be treated as though they were credits under Section 43.
37. A party to a front-ending agreement may register the agreement or a certified copy of it against the land to which it applies.

PART VI - RESERVE FUNDS

38. The Corporation shall establish a separate reserve fund for each category of service to which the development charge relates.
39. Payments received by the Corporation under Part III of this By-law shall be paid into the reserve fund or funds to which the charge relates and shall be used only for capital costs.
40. Notwithstanding Section 39, the Corporation may borrow money from a reserve fund but if it does so the Corporation shall repay the amount used plus interest at a rate not less than the Bank of Canada rate on the day this By-law comes into force.
41. The Treasurer shall each year on or before such date as the Council may direct, give the Council a financial statement relating to this By-law and reserve funds established under Section 38.

PART VII - CREDITS

42. The Corporation shall give a person a credit towards the development charge in accordance with the agreement if the person performs work that relates to a service to which a development charge by-law relates.
44. The amount of the credit is the reasonable cost of doing the work as agreed by the Corporation and the person who is to be given the credit.
45. No credit may be given for any part of the cost of work that relates to an increase in the level of service that exceeds the average level of service.

46. A credit, or any part of it, may be given before the work for which the credit is given is completed.
47. A credit given in exchange for work done is a credit only in relation to the service to which the work relates.
48. If the work relates to more than one service, the credit for the work must be allocated, in the manner agreed by the Corporation, among the services to which the work relates.
49. The Corporation may agree that a credit given be in relation to another service to which this By-law applies.
50. The Corporation may agree to change a credit so that it relates to another service to which this By-law relates.
51. A credit may not be transferred unless the holder and person to whom the credit is to be transferred have agreed in writing to the transfer, and the Corporation has agreed to the transfer, either in the agreement under which the holder was given the credit or subsequently.
52. The transfer of a credit is not effective until the Corporation transfers it.
53. The Corporation shall transfer a credit upon being requested to do so by the holder, the person to whom the credit is to be transferred or the agent of either of them and being given proof that the conditions in Section 51 are satisfied.
54. A credit that relates to a service may be used only with respect to that part of a development charge that relates to the service.
55. A credit may only be used by the holder, his agent or the transferee in the event that the credit has been transferred by the holder with the approval of the Corporation.

PART VIII - ADMINISTRATION

56. A Development Charge is payable for a development prior to the issuance of a Building Permit.
57. If any amount is payable under a front-ending agreement by a person who develops land, the Corporation shall not issue a building permit for the development until the amount is paid.
58. Despite Sections 56 and 57, the Corporation may enter into an agreement with a person who is required to pay a development charge providing for all or any part of a development charge to be paid before or after it would otherwise be payable.

59. The total amount of a development charge payable under an agreement under Section 58 is the amount of the development charge that would be determined under this By-law on the day specified in the agreement or, if no such day is specified, at the earlier of,
- a. the time the development charge or any part of it is payable under the agreement; and
  - b. the time the development charge would have been payable in the absence of the agreement.
60. Despite section 56, a development charge in respect of any part of a development that consists of a rental housing development, that is not a non-profit housing development, or a non-profit housing development, is payable in accordance with this section:
- a) A development charge shall be paid in equal annual instalments beginning on the earlier of the date of the issuance of a permit under the Building Code Act, 1992, authorizing occupation of the building and the date the building is first occupied, and continuing on:
    1. the following five anniversaries of that date for rental housing development; or
    2. the following 20 anniversaries of that date, in the case of a development charge for a non-profit housing development.
  - b) The amount of a development charge referred to in subsection (a) is the amount of the development charge determined in accordance with Section 61.
  - c) A person required to pay a development charge referred to in Section 60 shall, unless the occupation of the building in respect of which a development charge is required is authorized by a permit under the Building Code Act, 1992, notify the Township within five business days of the building first being occupied.
  - d) If a person described in subsection (c) fails to comply with that subsection, the development charge, including any interest payable in accordance with subsection (e) is payable immediately.
  - e) The Township may charge interest on the instalments required by subsection (a) from the date the development charge would have been payable in accordance with Section 60 to the date the instalment is paid, at a rate not exceeding the prescribed maximum interest rate.

- f) Unpaid instalments under subsection a and interest charged in accordance with subsection (e) may be added to the tax roll and collected in the same manner as taxes.
- g) If any part of a development to which this section applies is changed so that it no longer consist of a type of development set out in subsection (a), the development charge including any interest payable, but excluding any instalments already paid in accordance with subsection (a) is payable immediately.
- h) This section does not apply in cases where there is an agreement under section 58

61. The total amount of a development charge, for rental housing or non-profit rental housing is the amount of the development charge that would be determined under the by-law on:

- a) the day an application for an approval of development in a site plan control area under subsection 41(1) of the Planning Act was made in respect of the development that is the subject of the development charge
- b) if clause (1) does not apply, the day an application for an amendment to a by-law passed under section 34 of the Planning Act was made in respect of the development that is subject of the development charge; or
- c) if neither clause (1) or (2) applies,
  - 1. In the case of a development charge in respect of development to which section 60 applies, the day the development charge would be payable in accordance with section 56 if section 59 did not apply; or
  - 2. In the case of a development charge in respect of a development to which section 60 does not apply, the day the development charge is payable in accordance with section 56.
- d) Where clause (a) or (b) applies, the Township may charge interest on the development charge, at a rate not exceeding the prescribed maximum interest rate, from the date of the application referred to in the applicable clause to the date the development charge is payable
- e) If a development was the subject of more than one application referred to clause (a) or (b), the later one is deemed to the applicable application for the purposes of this section.

- - f) Clauses (a) and (b) do not apply in respect of:
    - 1. any part of a development to which section 61 applies if, on the date the first building permit is issued for the development, more than the prescribed amount of time has elapsed since the application referred to in clause (a) or (b) was approved;
    - 2. any part of a development to which section 61 does not apply if, on the date the development charge is payable, more than the prescribed amount of time has elapsed since the application referred to in clause (a) or (b) was approved.
62. An agreement under Section 58 may allow the Corporation to charge interest, at a rate stipulated in the agreement, on that part of the development charge paid after it would otherwise be payable.
63. Nothing in this by-law prevents the Council from passing subsequent development charges by-laws applying to the area covered under this by-law.
62. A certified copy of this by-law may be registered against the land to which it applies.
63. Where a development charge or any part of it remains unpaid after it is payable, the amount unpaid shall be added to the tax roll and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes.
64. This By-law shall be administered by the Chief Building Official.
65. This By-law shall come into force and effect on the DATE
66. This By-law shall continue in force and effect for a period not to exceed five (5) years from the date of passage, unless it is repealed at an earlier date by a subsequent bylaw.
67. This By-law may be cited as the Development Charges By-law.
